

Programs for Exceptional Children Set

The local associations in the Lomita-San Pedro Council are offering their members and other interested persons many interesting programs featuring exceptional children.

The coming year will bring guest speakers to the various schools to explain the needs and desires of these children.

The exceptional child is defined as one who varies from the normal to a marked degree and therefore requires special training. Public understanding of these children and their problems can do much towards making life happier, not only for the children, but for their families as well.

Congressman King Returns Home Sat.

Congressman Cecil R. King arrives home Saturday from his official duties in Washington to begin his re-election campaign.

Since the adjournment of Congress, the veteran legislator has served on a special House Ways and Means subcommittee on the government's trade agreements with foreign nations.

Y-Teen Club To Install New Officers

Hi Topper Y-teen club held their first meeting for this fall, at the Y. Rachel Hogan presided as the new president at this meeting.

Rachael was one of the girls that attended the Y conference at Asilomar in Pacific Grove, this last June.

On the Hi Topper agenda is the planning of their initiation of new members and the installation of new officers.

The new officers for the coming year are as follows: Rachael Hogan, president; Ginny Sandstrom, vice-president; Joyce Cannon, secretary; Madlyn Hensley, treasurer; Gay Maupin, chaplain; Audrey Nickisch, historian-reporter, and Shirley Bullock, sargent-at-arms.

Membership Drive Set by PTA Group

"The sky is the limit" is the theme of the membership drive of the Fern-Greenwood PTA, which will start October 1. Mrs. A. E. McViears, membership chairman, with her committee of Mesdames T. J. Wilkes, L. H. Voien, D. Mathien, and assisted by the President, D. D. Tuggle, announced plans to stimulate 100% membership.
